Purely Personal Up-to-date in == Everyt

The large idea that controls this store is that goods must be new and orthy, styles the very latest, and everything about the place thoroughly up-to-date. As fast as new goods and new ideas present themselves we intend to know it.

We say to each and every customer "your money back if you wish it." This may seem like encouraging people to be fickle and changeable and careless in their buying. It isn't business according to old-fashioned notions of doing business, but its up-to-date and its right. We want our goods to be just as eloquent as our salespeople. We want them to bring back pleased and satisfied outtomers to our stores That's the ceason why we say "your money back if you wish it."
